TUESDAY MORNING MAR 24 1863

Popular Reaction

In another column, we have quoted part of John Van Buren's recent speech at a Democratic meeting in New York from which it will be seen that he with his usual adroitness in snuffing the popular breeze is satisfied that it is the duty of every man to support the Government in its efforts to crush the Rebellion. He has discovered that his treasonable talk last Fall is not the basis of patriotism — that there is danger lest in the future, his reputation may suffer by the charge of sympathy with Secession, and he is therefore anxious as speedily as possible to erase this blot upon his fame, by earnestly denouncing the Rebels. Perhaps, also, there may be a trifle of anger at the Southern leaders because they so contemptuously scorned and spit upon his propositions for compromise and peace. He rolled himself in dirt at their feet, begging them to come back again and rule over us as before, and they showed him less consideration than they would even to old John Brown. The latter they knew to be sincere, even if they thought him a fanatic; but as to Van Buren and his friends, they had been political demagogues for a generation, and all partnership with them was known to be a trade with sharpers. But whatever may be the cause, it is clear that John is now disposed to work for the Union, and also that a very large number of the Northern sympathizers have found that they must not longer pursue their recent course. They are therefore ready to justify the Administration in all its measures, Emancipation of the slaves of rebels not excepted.

Such politicians are the weathercocks of public sentiment, and always point in the direction of the popular breeze and we therefore find as a cause of their change of position all over the North among the masses, unmistakable evidence of an earnest determination to crowd the war forward more vigorously — to use every means calculated to overcome the strength of the South. If it lies in slavery, they are ready to destroy it, whatever gives to Secession, aid, comfort and support North or South, is doomed to certain and swift destruction. Seeing this, and fearing the storm of public indignation, which is about to burst upon their treacherous heads the "peace" prophets and apostles are hurrying to the other side. They know that the determination of the people of the United States is that this Government shall be saved, and also that everlasting ignominy and shame shall cover those who are laboring directly or otherwise for its defeat,—and they now begin to see and to fear the consequences of their sympathy with Secession and of their higher love for Slavery than for the Union. Though perhaps no great confidence is to be put in their present professions, as they change front often and easily, always trying to be on the popular side, yet it is gratifying to all loyal hearts to find them in the attitude they now occupy because it shows—not that they are any more patriotic at heart than they have been while abusing and obstructing the Government, but that there is an influence and a power now operating in the land, strong enough and healthy enough to drive such miserable Tories from the nominal ranks of Rebellion and to put them professedly at least on the side of the Government and of loyalty.

Letter from the West.—A friend has handed us the following extract from a letter written in one of the Western States which has recently been claimed as democratic or more correctly as copperhead. It is a truthful statement of the causes of the political action, over which secessionism in Oregon has waxed fat and kicked.

Our Copperhead Democrats, I notice by items in distant papers are attracting considerable attention. I can assure you it amounts to just nothing farther than conveying a false impression abroad. The masses of this State and Indiana are true and loyal. The bogus Democracy gained the ascendancy in the Legislature, partly from a desire of the people to punish some of the Soft head Abolition would be leaders of the Republican party, and partly through genuine magnanimity of Republicans and loyal men of all parties hoping to thus enjoin them to decency, but they have now so thoroughly disgraced themselves that they will be swept aside without any delicacy or compunctions of conscience.

I am feeling more sanguine of success in the suppression of the Rebellion than ever before. I think bottom has been touched and hence forth the rebels are to receive frequent sharp clanging blows, if not crushing ones.

Wonderful Logic!—The Albany paper asserts that because the Governor of Oregon cannot under our State constitution, put a law into operation by proclamation therefore the President cannot in time of war emancipate slaves of rebels in States under martial law by his proclamation! Is not that as clear as Loco Foco arguments can be. Think it over—you will not see it at first but you may finally and if you do you will confess the sublime wisdom of the keen editor who "done it."

A War Speech by John Van Buren

On Tuesday evening, February 24th John Van Buren addressed the Democratic Union Association of New York. The following passages from his speech will interest our readers.

We must deal with those who speak to the South and not with those who [illegible] President. We have nothing left [illegible] with them except by taking [illegible] views [illegible] leading journals and speakers. We have this view [illegible] and the [illegible] of the South and [illegible] their [illegible] settle. This I utterly deny—[Loud applause] and [illegible] shall [illegible] the [illegible] ceased to [illegible] thing in the Constitution to warrant it. It is the destruction of our form of Government and must be resisted at all hazards. It is then [illegible] the condition of the country. Now in regard to the holding of a Convention, in which we may all enter with each other, and they of the South as well as we of the North might debate [illegible] ground of the existing Government. First is claim that Mr Lincoln has the Constitutional President elected for four years and he must serve two years longer from March next unless the people of the United States choose to go into a Convention and decide otherwise. If they do this, a new election can be ordered in sixty days. If the Convention so decide. But the people of the South do not choose to see the thing in this light they choose rather to abide by the [illegible] of certain [illegible] men who have led them into this controversy and are unequivocally opposed to anything like a restoration of the Union. I never doubted that Jeff Davis is opposed to it or that the ringleaders of the rebellion are opposed to reconciliation. Their existence politically morally and, it may be physically, depends upon the establishment of an independent Confederacy. No man who has any regard for himself would uphold these men or treat them as political brethren hereafter. The certain fate which awaits any one who would do so would deter every one from the thought. Therefore they are opposed to reunion. Our friends in Illinois who propose to endeavor to hold a Convention will find it a barren task because the South is determined not to return and until their armies have power to resist and put us down, this war must go on and those who would attempt to stop it will be carried away by the torrent. [Loud applause and a few hisses.] These are my opinions—my personal views. And now let us consider what is the best mode of prosecuting the war. I have already stated that I prefer peace—That we cannot have. Those who we are dealing with will not have it and those who attempt to obtain it without their consent are on a fruitless errand. The articles of their journals and the declarations of their speakers show [illegible]. Now, some persons have suggested foreign intervention. To that I oppose my objection in any and every way whether it be in the form of advice or of forcible interference. I would not even consent to the plan of the Tribune to refer it to one of the Swiss Cantons. This rebellion is real, and rather than call on foreigners to decide whether we shall live or not and on what terms, it would be better to die at once! [Applause.] So there is no use of talking about foreign intervention, we must either subdue this tumult ourselves or not at all. Next, we should inquire upon what terms the war should go on. There was but one opinion in the North when the war broke out. When Congress resolved that the war was to restore the Union as it existed before, and to restore the Constitution, there was but one unanimous opinion in Congress to sustain the Administration. Subsequently to that time there have been occurrences which have worked sensible changes in the Northern mind producing not only an open opposition to the Administration, but almost a plain sympathy with the South, and a desire to end the war. Let us see what is the cause.

[Here Van Buren referred to the President's proclamation, and approved of the policy of which it was an expression.]

As our armies progress freedom to the slave must follow as a matter of course, just like the destruction of any other kind of rebel possessions.

Letter from Auburn

Auburn March 13th 1863

Editor Oregonian

The relation the Snake Indians on Boise river bear towards the miners and their stock going and returning to these mines is of the most hostile nature and through your paper the public should be placed on their guard. No man should attempt to visit these mines without a rifle on his shoulder and a revolver by his side. About three weeks since they fired into a tent where several men were sleeping, on Payette river wounding one man in the leg and two horses that were hitched near by. Two men Brayton and Warkel, were murdered on Snake river near the mouth of Powder river who were on their way to Lewiston in a canoe. It appears that they in company with two other men now in this place whose names I do not recollect were in the canoe and having reached the head of some rapids determined to unload their canoe of everything but provision for supper before passing over which was accordingly done. After passing the rapids in safety Brayton and Warkel returned for their baggage while the other two remained to prepare supper. Becoming alarmed at the non appearance of the absent men the two latter left camp after dark in search of them at the head of the rapids where instead of finding their companions they found moccasin tracks, pools of blood a pistol belt and places where the dead bodies had been dragged to the river. They then crossed the river and remained concealed during night, and next day proceeded to Olds Ferry about twenty five miles above. A brother of one of the murdered men showed me a letter from a friend who had gone in search of the bodies, stating that they had both been found and were scalped. About $100 in coin was found on their persons, thirty two ounces of gold dust left in their blankets was taken by the Indians.

The express from Boise brought reports one hundred head of cattle being stolen on that river the night before he left. About sixty men started in search of Indians some three weeks since. No news from them yet.

As you see from these facts, and many others I could mention the Indians are not likely to remain idle long. If Gen Alvord would only furnish our miners with [illegible] to fight in our own way [illegible] when the Indians are whipped we would have peace in a short time. If Uncle Sam is to fight them he [illegible] we will see no time [illegible]

I leave in three or four days for the Boise mines after visiting which I will return to [illegible]. Everything quiet here. Snow is beginning to disappear. There was flour here yesterday for $1 [illegible] 100 pounds which is less than the freight. Most other articles are high in the [illegible] particularly miners tools and gum and leather [illegible]

Yours respectfully

M M McCarver

Arrival of Brother Jonathan!

The steamer Brother Jonathan, S J De Wolf commander arrived at her wharf in this city at ten o'clock last night, bringing dates only one day later from the East—having come by way of Victoria. We are indebted to Wells Fargo & Co and Jerry Sullivan for full files of late papers from which we take the following summary of news.

Washington March 15.—Gen Schurz and Stahl were yesterday nominated and confirmed as Major Generals.

A vacancy exists on the Bench of the Supreme Court the confirmation of Andrew Wintle of Virginia for that position having been reconsidered.

The excitement in the Army of the Potomac on Wednesday was caused by a false report of the enemy having crossed the Rappahannock.

United States official letters from La Paz in Arizona speak of recent discoveries of very rich gold silver and quicksilver mines there.

The working of the Internal Revenue Law begins to be most satisfactory and with weekly receipts of over $1 800 000 the interest of the public debt is safe.

New York March 16.—The [illegible] has arrived from Port Royal, with dates to the 12th with Gen Naglee [Foster] and part of his staff as passengers. It is thought at Port Royal that a personal difficulty existing between him and the Secretary of War caused his recall. Gen Terry commands at Port Royal. [illegible] Gen Hunter had issued an order drafting all able-bodied negroes for martial duty.

New York March 16.—The Commercial says that Mr Chase left this city this morning for Washington. Whatever the effects may be which will eventually proceed from the consultations, it is believed that nothing has been accomplished at present either in the establishment of a bank under the new law of Congress or the placing of the loan in the market.

M Gaillardet writing to the Courrier des Etats Unis from Paris February 27th says: There is a rumor on the Bourse today of an insurrection in Hungary corresponding to that of Poland. This looks improbable on its face. It is alleged that a resolution has been suddenly taken by Napoleon to recall the French army from Mexico, and treat with Juarez upon the report of Gen Forey recognizing that the popularity of the Mexican President insures his re-election. It is added that the Emperor wishes to avoid the conflict daily growing imminent with the Northern States through the aid they offer the Mexicans, by the unpleasant relations existing between Seward and Mercier, and the refusal of the Washington Cabinet to accept the last proposal of France.

A Washington special dispatch says there is no doubt but the rebels will evacuate Vicksburg, if they have not already. The rebels succeeded in destroying an important bridge and will probably retire to Jackson which is strongly fortified. This exposes Port Hudson and renders its fall certain.

Gen Stahl has been placed in command of the cavalry in front of Washington.

Gen Burnside is still in Washington awaiting final orders for his new command.

A vessel from Minatitlan confirms the capture of that place, without opposition, by two French gunboats on February 9th.

The steamer from Havana the 9th, brings late Mexican news. The French army started for Puebla on February 19th, and it is presumed an attack was made by March 1st.

Alarming reports prevailed in St Domingo that ten districts had revolted under Gen Lucas and troops were being sent from Cuba, and several war vessels ordered there.

Washington, March 16.—The Committee on the Conduct of the War, it is understood have closed their testimony and will make their report in about two weeks.

The expedition to colonize persons of color has been indefinitely postponed by the President.

It is understood that all nominations left unconfirmed by the Senate and not absolutely rejected by that body will be reviewed by the President, and the vacancies caused by a rejection will be immediately filled.

The belief in the evacuation of Vicksburg is very strong to day in all circles. It is based on the grounds that the Federals forced the evacuation by cutting off the supplies and nearly surrounding that city, and, also that Port Hudson will be left to hold the Mississippi if possible while the rebel troops at Vicksburg fall back to the interior and eventually re-enforce the rebels in East Tennessee.

The Navy Department has a dispatch from Admiral Porter dated Vicksburg 7th, which says he had heard the signal agreed upon by him and Commander Smith as soon as the latter should get in the Yazoo river.

The Postmaster General has authorized postmasters throughout the country to frank all official communications of Collectors and Assessors of Internal Revenue with their Deputies and Assistants.

The young lady who it is ascertained betrayed Gen Stoughton into the hands of the rebels has been placed in prison. On her person were found letters apprising her of another raid which was to be summarily prevented.

New York. March 16.—The bank statement shows a decrease in loans of $3 000 000; a decrease of specie of $3 500 000, and a decrease of deposits of $1 700 000. Money is at 6 per cent. Sterling exchange 174. Gold unsettled closed firm at 155. Government stocks firmer. 6's of $1 103¾. Certificates 99¾. 7 3 10 notes 105¾@106. California 7's 154. 3 P M—Gold 154.

Per Brother Jonathan.—We are under obligation to the Purser of Brother Jonathan for the following memoranda and list of passengers.

Memoranda.—Steamer Brother Jonathan S J De Wolf [illegible] sailed from San Francisco Mar [illegible] at 4 P M for Victoria and Portland. Arrived at Victoria [illegible] at [illegible] [illegible]

Passengers.—[illegible] Keeser and wife [illegible] Kurtz wife and [illegible] [illegible] with infant Mrs Magruder family and servant Ames Young and wife Mrs Chapman [illegible] Wickersham Thomas Nelson [illegible] J Franklin R P Woodman [illegible] Cray B S Ward M [illegible] Selling [illegible] chase Mr & Mrs Waldron Mr Reeve Mr [illegible] Mortimer Mr Thayer Mr Seelie Mr Meyers W D [illegible] J M Standell J B Keyser and boy W H Carpenter F Carpenter F Fish [illegible] Slaw Judge [illegible] B Clough Ma[illegible] Whiston Capt [illegible] Fle[illegible] Capt J J Wright J [illegible] Wilson [illegible] Smith Mrs E Renfrew J [illegible] W Sutton T M R [illegible] M Frankel [illegible] W [illegible] J Baum [illegible] M Ahe J Hare S Kelley J Kelley [illegible] Humphreys C Murett A B Driscoll [illegible] Haight S Schuyler [illegible] J A Traver J S Leak [illegible] I V Sandy J M Wilkinson and 153 others.

The Brother Jonathan brings 350 tons freight.

A Murfreesboro correspondent says: A wounded rebel officer discussing the late battle said: "Our army thinks your General is a d—d Dutch fool. He don't know when he's whipped." Our cushions prevailed the [illegible] General R[illegible] is a German. He represents the [illegible] generation of the native American [illegible] family.

Sir Fletcher Norton was noted for his want of courtesy. When pleading before Lord Mansfield on some question of manorial right he chanced unfortunately to say, "My Lord, I can illustrate the point in an instant in my own person: I myself have two little manors." The Judge immediately interposed with one of his blandest smiles: "We all know it, Sir Fletcher."

The Howe Murder Case.—We learn by a gentleman just from Olympia that the Grand Jury of the Second Judicial District of Washington Territory at a recent term of Court held in Olympia found an indictment for manslaughter against young Howe for the killing of B F Kendall and that the Court admitted Howe to bail in the sum of $5 000 and postponed the case to next term of Court which does not convene until Sept ember next.

Careless Shooting.—Within the last few days, we have heard of several instances of the reckless use of fire arms, by which life has been endangered. In one case, a pistol ball came through the side of a ware-house in which several persons were standing; in another, a bullet fell upon the roof of a shed and rolled down at the feet of the by standers. Boys who use such tools should be careful how they play with them, or they may suddenly and justly find themselves in the hands of the police.

To the Lovers of Sacred Music.—Mr. R. S. Bassett, Member of the Boston Musical [illegible], will deliver a lecture at the Methodist Church this evening, commencing at 7 o'clock. Subject—"Manner and Way of imparting Musical Instruction," as taught by the Boston Musical Academy. As the lecture is free, every lover of music will have an opportunity to gratify a commendable desire for instruction.

Bound Over.—Michael Thomas was brought before the Recorder yesterday, on a charge of stealing leadpipe from the Distillery building of the Messrs. Starr, and on the evidence offered was bound over in the sum of $600 for his appearance at the next term of the Circuit Court.

Personal.—We had the pleasure of greeting the return home of our fellow townsman, Mr. W. D. Carter, who has been on a visit to the "green mountain" home of his boyhood.—The trip, we are pleased to learn, has been pleasant, agreeable and beneficial, as his excellent good health fully testifies.

Theatrical Troupe.—We notice among the list of passengers by the Brother Jonathan, the names of several distinguished dramatic artistes, who, it may be expected, will revive the pleasing scenes upon the theatrical boards of our city in a series of interesting entertainments.

Election.—Mr. F. W. Bell having resigned the position as Foreman of Engine Company No. 4, an election was held last evening to fill the vacancy, which resulted in the election of Mr. John W. Sutton, Foreman, and Mr Patton, Secretary of the Company.

Greenbacks.—The Bulletin of the 17th, quotes greenbacks at 68c offered; asked, not given.

Mr. J. B. Emery, Salem: In the Portland [illegible] Monday, we notice your card addressed to us, dated the 18th inst. It is difficult to bring you to the scratch, but we mean to do it or make you back square down with your "fleetest trotting stallion in the State." In our last card, we offered to accept your own proposal to trot our stallion against "Black Hawk" for $500, or $1,000, in coin, on any day you might name prior to the 1st of April next; and every sporting man, or "any other man," who reads our card, will see that it is not true, as you say, that we have declined your proposition to trot for coin. But we mean business, and not talk. We therefore follow you up, and take you at your last offer. We have now deposited $500, in coin, in this city, which we challenge you to cover, as forfeit money, within ten days, for a match between "Black Hawk" and our stallion, for that sum, or for $1,000 in coin, if you think that sum more "reasonable," or for any sum you dare name. The match to come off over the Union track in this county, mile heats, three in five, to harness, under the rules of that track, and on any day prior to the 1st of May next. By making you this offer we do not compel you to withdraw your horse from the "ring" this season, although you profess to be willing to do that if you can make a match for "any reasonable amount in coin," and we give you over five weeks to fix your horse, which "sporting men" will say is long enough, if you mean pay or play. In this challenge we do not mean to leave any hole for you to creep out of; and, therefore, expect you to cover our money, or say by your actions, which speak louder than words, that you dare not match "Black Hawk" against your [illegible], and in the next number of the States [illegible] take in your sign.

Yours, Sherlock & Bacon

Pacific Market.

The New Market on Front street, No. 2, Couch's Addition, is now opened by Messrs. WEEKS, GILMORE & Co., Proprietors, for the accommodation of the public, and our citizens may be assured that it will be equal to any on the Pacific Coast, where none but the best quality of meats will be kept for sale. The Proprietors are well known to the whole community for their fair dealing in the management of their other first-class Markets—the Empire, on Washington street and the Franklin on Taylor street.

Storage.—The Fire-Proof Stone Warehouse, opposite Umatilla House, is the only building not made of wood at the Dalles where goods are taken on STORAGE. All other houses that take goods on storage are wooden buildings and in exposed parts of the town liable to the risk of fire. The subscriber assures his patrons that his charges are but $1.50 per ton per month storage, and although storage in wooden buildings is $1.00 per ton, yet the public cannot fail to perceive the advantages the subscriber possesses over other warehouses in this place.

"I Fights mit Sigel!"

I met him again he was trudging along,
His knapsack with chickens was swelling;
He'd Blenkered these dainties and thought it no wrong,
From some secessionist's dwelling.
"What regiment's yours and under whose flag
Do you fight?" said I, touching his shoulder;
Turning slowly around he smilingly said,
For the thought made him stronger and bolder—
I fights mit Sigel.

The next time I saw him his knapsack was gone,
His cap and canteen were missing,
Shell, shrapnel and grape, and the swift rifle ball
Around him and o'er him were hissing.
"How are you my friend, and where have you been,
And for what and for whom are you fighting?"
He said, as a shell from the enemy's gun
Sent his arm and his musket a kiting
I fights mit Sigel.

And once more I saw him and knelt by his side,
His life blood was rapidly flowing;
I whispered of home, wife, children, and friends,
The bright land to which he was going;
And have you no word for the dear ones at home,
The "wee ones," the father or mother?
"Yaw! yaw!" said he, "tell them! Oh! tell them I fights—"
Poor fellow, he thought of no other—
I fights mit Sigel.

We scraped out a grave, and he dreamlessly sleeps
On the banks of the Shenandoah river;
His home or his kindred alike are unknown,
His reward in the hands of the Giver.
We placed a rough board at the head of his grave,
And we left him alone in his glory;
But on it we marked ere we turned from the spot,
The little we knew of his story—
I fights mit Sigel.

Female Society at the White House.—Washington correspondence of the Boston Journal says:

The inner circles of what may be called the Presidential society have always been the subject of much comment and gossip among what may be termed the outer circles. Thus, Mrs. Abigail Adams, wife of President John Adams, wrote as follows of Mrs. Washington: "She endears herself to all. Not by what she is so much as by what she is not, and makes up by cordiality the short-comings of an early education." In turn, Mrs. Adams was commented upon as follows, in one of the private letters of the day: "She is prim, cold and possesses too much mind for the very little heart that hardly seems to beat under her taffeta gown." By the aristocracy of Virginia, Mrs. Madison was called the Quaker widow, and gentlemen were "too fond of her society," in the common parlance of the day. The manners of Mrs. Monroe were "too much of the French school," and it was asserted that the niece of General Jackson (who presided over his household) "had no manners at all." Mrs. Harrison left the White House before her manners were developed—and while the first wife of John Tyler was "too old," the second was "too young." Mrs. Polk "wore shawls and turban" as well as paste jewelry. Mrs. Taylor "did not receive," Mrs. Fillmore was "deaf," Mrs. Pierce, sad and afflicted, "never laid off her mourning," and Miss Lane was "spoiled by being told that she resembled Queen Victoria."

Indian Department Accounts.—A large number of people hereabouts are interested in Indian Department accounts, and for their edification we give place to the following extract from a letter written by Gen. Barnum, now at Washington, and addressed to a citizen of the Dalles:

"Your accounts are still tied up along with all and every other Indian account in Oregon and Washington Territory. In the first place, the funds under certain heads from which they must be allowed and paid, have been exhausted. Senators Nesmith and Harding have a resolution passing through Congress to authorize moneys under the appropriations—unexpended balances to the amount of $26,000—to be diverted and used in payment of outstanding claims. But the worst features of our Indian affairs are the charges of fraud, corruption and swindling that have been thrown over all transactions for years back. Mr. [illegible] makes a sweeping charge of fraud, and erroneous and unwarrantable expenditures in all accounts—or at least his letters are so construed by the Commissioner, and not a dollar will be paid until there is some investigation, or the charges in question are refuted. Our Senators denounce the charges as false and unfounded, and not to be entertained."—Mountaineer

Importance of the South.—The importance of the South has been overrated. If the Southern States were swallowed up by an earthquake, the world would be again supplied with cotton in two years. Cotton is an annual plant requiring for its production only seed, soil and necessity. The seed is always to be had—the soil constitutes a zone round the earth of some seventy degrees—the necessity is furnished by starving Europe, and by the high price of cotton, which now makes it by far the most profitable crop that can be anywhere raised. Two years more of vigorous war and blockade will cause the world to supply itself with cotton, without an earthquake. The hundred new places which are now struggling to raise cotton, will be five hundred next year. And when the production shall have once more overtaken the demand, cotton will become a drug; and if it shall ever happen that the pacified South shall be able to return to the cultivation of cotton, it will only be to render it still more a drug, exceeding in that character all other kinds of property except negro property, which will then not pay for keeping.

Autographs of Authors, for Albums.—"He stood on the bridge at midnight, mounted the stone coping, and beheld the river below him, rushing, bubbling, hurrying on its way. He drew from his velveteen jacket pocket in succession the bottle of poison, the revolver, and the long bowie knife, for he had resolved to shuffle off this mortal coil, and to quit the scenes of his many unmerited afflictions. Did no still small voice arrest him in his fierce resolve, and bid him live and retrieve his errors, saying, To err is human, to forgive, divine! Alas, who shall say? He waited in his fell determination until a huge barge, then before the towers of the Archbishop's palace, where the proud priest slumbered in purple and fine linen, nothing heeding the wretched outcast, should glide beneath him to make assurance doubly sure. Dashed against her sides, he thought, the waves will receive me lifeless. Then with one wild cry the wretched man drove the dagger into his bosom, swallowed the poison, discharged the pistol at his head, and sprang into the gloomy abyss. But his time was not yet come."—Author of Any Penny Novel.

Barney and Mickey on Peace Plans.—"Indade, Barney, and what does it mane where it says the vigorous prosecution of the war should be accompanied by the most liberal offers of peace?"

"Och, ye blockhead, don't yez know? it manes—it manes—yis, it manes—the same as if two of yez was having a bit of discushun wid sticks, and ivry time the other one should hit yez a pelt in the gob yez should sing out, 'now let's be paceable!'"

"Bedad, Barney, I think that would be a lengthy discushun, then; for he'd think I was after being whipped. First I'd give him the licks first, and thin talk the paceable afterwards. Shure, that's the sinsible way."

"Ah, Mickey, I'm afraid ye do so much of yer own thinkin' to be a good Dimocrat."

Good Doctrine.—The Nevada Journal says it will continue to "advocate the cause of the Union, and the suppression of the rebellion, no matter who is in the Cabinet or who commands the armies. We are for every man who is for Union, whether Republican or Democrat—Northerner or Southerner."

Dysentery, Relax, and Worms.

POST OFFICE, HARTLAND, LIV. CO., MICH., Nov. 15, 1855.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the perfection of medicine. They have done my wife more good than I can tell you. She had been sick and pining away for months. Went off to be doctored at great expense, but got no better. She then commenced taking your Pills, which soon cured her, by expelling large quantities of worms (dead) from her body. They afterwards cured her and our two children of bloody dysentery. One of our neighbors had it bad, and my wife cured him with two doses of your Pills, while others around us paid from five to twenty dollars doctors' bills, and lost much time, without being cured entirely even then. Such a medicine as yours, which is actually good and honest, will be prized here. GEO. J. GRIFFIN, Postmaster.

Indigestion and Impurity of the Blood.

From Rev. J. V. Himes, Pastor of Advent Church, Boston.

DR. AYER: I have used your Pills with extraordinary success in my family and among those I am called to visit in distress. To regulate the organs of digestion and purify the blood they are the very best remedy I have ever known, and I can confidently recommend them to my friends. Yours, J. V. HIMES.

WARSAW, WYOMING CO., N. Y., Oct. 24, 1855.

DEAR SIR: I am using your Cathartic Pills in my practice, and find them an excellent purgative to cleanse the system and purify the fountains of the blood.
JOHN G. MEACHAM, M. D.

Erysipelas, Scrofula, King's Evil, Tetter, Tumors, and Salt Rheum.

From a Forwarding Merchant of St. Louis, Feb. 4, 1856.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the paragon of all that is great in medicine. They have cured my little daughter of ulcerous sores upon her hands and feet that had proved incurable for years. Her mother has been long grievously afflicted with blotches and pimples on her skin and in her hair. After our child was cured, she also tried your Pills, and they have cured her.
ASA MORGRIDGE.

Rheumatism, Neuralgia, and Gout.

From the Rev. Dr. Hawkes, of the Methodist Epis. Church.

PULASKI HOUSE, SAVANNAH, GA., Jan. 6, 1856.

HONORED SIR: I should be ungrateful for the relief your skill has brought me if I did not report my case to you. A cold settled in my limbs and brought on excruciating neuralgic pains, which ended in chronic rheumatism. Notwithstanding I had the best physicians, the disease grew worse and worse, until, by the advice of your excellent agent in Baltimore, Dr. Mackenzie, I tried your Pills. Their effects were slow, but sure. By persevering in the use of them I am now entirely well.

SENATE CHAMBER, BATON ROUGE, LA., 5 Dec., 1855.

DR. AYER: I have been entirely cured by your Pills of Rheumatic Gout—a painful disease that had afflicted me for years.
VINCENT SLIDELL.

For Dropsy, Plethora, or kindred Complaints, requiring an active purge, they are an excellent remedy.

For Costiveness or Constipation, and as a Dinner Pill, they are agreeable and effectual.

Fits, Suppression, Paralysis, Inflammation, and even Deafness, and Partial Blindness, have been cured by the alterative action of these Pills.

Most of the pills in market contain Mercury, which, although a valuable remedy in skilful hands, is dangerous in a public pill, from the dreadful consequences that frequently follow its incautious use. These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

and for the relief of consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease.

We need not speak to the public of its virtues. Throughout every town and almost every hamlet of the American States, its wonderful cures of pulmonary complaints have made it already known. Nay, few are the families in any civilized country on this continent without some personal experience of its effects; and fewer yet the communities any where which have not among them some living trophy of its victory over the subtle and dangerous diseases of the throat and lungs. While it is the most powerful antidote yet known to man for the formidable and dangerous diseases of the pulmonary organs, it is also the pleasantest and safest remedy that can be employed for infants and young persons. Parents should have it in store against the insidious enemy that steals upon them unprepared. We have abundant grounds to believe the CHERRY PECTORAL saves more lives by the consumptions it prevents than those it cures. Keep it by you, and cure your colds while they are curable, nor neglect them until no human skill can master the inexorable canker that, fastened on the vitals, eats your life away. All know the dreadful fatality of lung disorders, and as they know too the virtues of this remedy, we need not do more than assure them it is still made the best it can be. We spare no cost, no care, no toil to produce it the most perfect possible, and thus afford those who rely on it the best agent which our skill can furnish for their cure.
